Thank you for attending the February 12, 2021 virtual MROQC Collaborative-Wide Meeting

Thank you everyone that attended the February 12, 2021 virtual MROQC Collaborative-Wide Meeting. We had a total of 191 participants on the webinar. Our next MROQC Collaborative-Wide Meeting is scheduled for June 11, 2021 and will be held virtually.

Help MROQC Celebrate Our 10th Anniversary!

In honor of MROQC's 10th anniversary, we will be creating an electronic book to commemorate and honor the important work of our members since 2011. Help us celebrate by sharing what MROQC means to you or your favorite MROQC moment over the years! Those who submit will be featured in the book. Click HERE to submit your entry. Thank you for your participation!

What's new with MROQC?

Changes to the Prostate Working Group

We are sad to announce that Dan Spratt, MD will be leaving MROQC at the start of April. Congratulations to Dan as he will be the next Chair of Radiation Oncology for University Hospitals Seidman Cancer Center! To help support the Prostate Working Group, Dave Heimbürger, MD of Munson Medical Center will join Bob Dess, MD as the new clinical co-lead of the project.

Welcome Henry Ford-Macomb

Please join us in welcoming our new site, Henry Ford Macomb, led by Clinical Champion, Dr. Ibrahim Aref, Site Administrator Michelle Dickinson, and Physics Lead, Justine Cunningham.

Lung Target Coverage & Heart Dose Measure: Clarification

This measure does not apply to lung cases receiving SBRT or hypofractionation treatment. An update to the 2021 Performance \(P4P\) Measure Criteria is now available on our website Members page.

Introducing MROQC Lingo 101

Do you wish someone would BID (break it down) so you could easily figure out what a CQI is from a P4P? Check out the new MROQC Organizational Glossary!
